NUGS.NET ENLISTS WIDESPREAD PANIC,
DAVE MATTHEWS BAND, PHISH & OTHERS FOR A
LIVE DOWNLOAD COMPILATION TO BENEFIT
NEW ORLEANS MUSICIANS

“UNION, JUSTICE & CONFIDENCE, A nugs.net BENEFIT ALBUM FOR NEW ORLEANS MUSICIANS” TO SUPPORT THE NEW ORLEANS MUSIC COMMUNITY

Los Angeles, CA – Nugs.net, the leader in live music downloads, has assembled an all-star compilation of live tracks to raise money for several New Orleans charities benefiting local musicians. Nugs.net’s artist partners donated the recordings for this compilation, including an exclusive release from Widespread Panic’s archives hand-picked by Panic front man John Bell and an exclusive, never-before-released song, “Low”, from former Phish guitarist Trey Anastasio and his new band 70 Volt Parade. Other artists contributing to the benefit compilation include Dave Matthews Band, Phish, Jerry Garcia Band, David Grisman Quintet, The String Cheese Incident, Gov’t Mule, Yonder Mountain String Band, Mike Gordon and the Benevento/Russo Duo, Umphrey’s McGee, Tea Leaf Green, Particle, New Riders of the Purple Sage, Outformation, and local New Orleans legends The Radiators and Galactic. Nugs.net and the 17 artists featured on the benefit release organized this compilation out of their dedication to providing continued support for this vital American music community.

Nugs.net and all the artists involved will donate 100% of the money raised from the sales of this hurricane benefit compilation to the following registered 501 (c)(3) non-profit charities: Tipitina’s Foundation, New Orleans Musician’s Clinic, New Orleans Musician’s Hurricane Relief Fund and Conscious Alliance. Bill Taylor, Director of the Tipitina’s Foundation expressed, “[W]e are empowered that so many people in our country recognize the importance of New Orleans’ own music heritage and its talented musicians. Monies raised from these efforts go immediately to help support displaced musicians as well as our greater mission to support the music and culture of New Orleans as we rebuild in the years to come.” This two CD benefit compilation album will be available for $10.95 as MP3 downloads and $15.95 as CD-quality FLAC downloads. To purchase, go to <http://nugs.net> and help support nugs.net’s efforts to rebuild the New Orleans community of musicians.

Dave Malone of The New Orleans Radiators expressed his thanks and says, "Everybody knows that the swamp and river have popped out some pretty incredible musicians! Now is your chance to give back to some of those great musicians who are in need and get some ultra-cool music as well."
